Come perform with us on Sunday, Dec 6! 10:45 am
Practice, Practice, Practice!

God's Greatest Gift

No shiny paper bow or string
Make a looping motion in the air with both hands, as if tying a ribbon bow

Is needed for this special King.
Place your hands on your head like a crown, then bow your head slightly.

God sent His Son from heaven above,
Point up toward the ceiling, then bring both hands down toward your chest.

To fill our hearts with peace and love.
Cross both hands firmly over your heart.

The gifts we wrap beneath the tree,
Stack your hands to form a square box shape in front of you.

As fun to open, fun to see.
Pull your hands apart quickly as if popping open a present lid.

Yet toys will break and fade away,
Drop hands gently down to your sides.

While Jesus stays with us each day.
Wrap both arms around yourself in a big hug.

So when we celebrate His birth,
Raise both hands up and give a cheerful wave.

And share good cheer across the earth,
Reach both arms out toward the congregation

Let's thank the Lord for sending down,
Press your palms together in front of your chest in a prayer pose.

The greatest gift in Bethlehem town.
Hold both hands out in front of you, palms up, as if offering a gift.
